1. All Marines and sailors in attendance must have a prescreening conducted. The prescreening must include the following:

- a. Must be 19 years of age or older.
- b. Must have completed 12 months active duty service since recruit training.
- c. Must be mature and emotionally stable. Personnel with a history of excessive use of alcohol or a history of neuropsychiatric disorders are not eligible.
- d. Must have no courts-martial convictions during current enlistment and must not be pending any punitive action or administrative separation.
- e. Must have no record of civil court convictions which resulted in confinement. Minor traffic violations are ok.
- f. Must have a score on the standard classification test (GT) of 90 or above.
- g. Must have no disfigurement or physical impediment that could cause the service member to be ridiculed or otherwise undermine the chasers control of a prisoner.
- h. In the event a chasers status changes regarding the set forth above, that chasers qualification will be revoked.
- i. Chasers who were issued a chaser card from another unit will not be authorized to use that card for the Camp Pendleton Base Brig. MCAS Yuma and MCAS Miramar are the only exceptions.
- j. After being chaser qualified all chasers are required to wear a duty belt when chasing prisoners/detainees.
